

American Parkinson Disease Association
Executive Director, Greater St. Louis Chapter
Chesterfield, MO

APDA's Mission

Every day, the American Parkinson Disease Association (APDA) provides the support, education, and research that will help everyone impacted by Parkinson's disease (PD) live life to the fullest.

APDA is the largest grassroots network dedicated to fighting PD and works tirelessly to help the approximately one million with PD in the United States live life to the fullest in the face of this chronic, neurological disorder. Founded in 1961, APDA has raised and invested more than $185 million to provide outstanding patient services and educational programs, elevate public awareness about the disease, and support research designed to unlock the mysteries of PD and ultimately put an end to this disease. This work is made possible through a nationwide network of Chapters and Information & Referral (I&R) Centers, as well as a national Research Program and eight APDA Centers for Advanced Research.

The organization's 2019-2021 Strategic Plan outlines ambitious targets, including:

- Delivering evidence-based, community-focused programs and services to those impacted by PD, with increased engagement with diverse populations.
- Advancing research efforts through awareness campaigns, advocacy and collaboration, and increased funding.
- Increasing awareness initiatives to educate the public about Parkinson's Disease as a major health issue and promote APDA as a leading subject matter expert.
- Expanding APDA's fundraising campaigns to ensure a diverse and sustainable revenue mix.

The Greater St. Louis Chapter is one of APDA's most well-established chapters and provides an array of dynamic programs and services. The chapter has a staff of six and a revenue budget of approximately $900k, and its territory includes Missouri and Southern Illinois. The Greater St. Louis Chapter seeks an Executive Director (ED) to lead its team to achieve continued growth and champion efforts in the region.

The Role

Working in conjunction with the chapter's Board of Directors and reporting to the Senior Vice President of Chapter Development and Field Operations, the Executive Director (ED) provides strategic leadership in the chapter's chartered territory and is responsible for enhancing mission delivery, generating revenue, and maximizing community presence. The ED manages human and financial resources and leads volunteers, staff and stakeholders in their efforts to realize APDA's mission. The ED will accomplish this through the development, implementation and evaluation of chapter programs and services, events and operations, and will ensure efficient functioning and sustainable growth. The ideal candidate is familiar with the local culture, geography and regional philanthropic community, has non-profit management experience and proven fundraising skills.

- Directs the meaningful involvement of volunteers in fundraising.
- Develops appropriate strategies to ensure income diversity, stability and growth.
- Creates and implements a marketing strategy to improve APDA's brand recognition in the chapter's territory.

Community Development and Public Outreach

- Provides the leadership, management and support for the development and execution of mission-driven programs.
- Serves as the primary staff spokesperson to promote the understanding of APDA's mission and presence in the chapter market areas.
- Cultivates productive relationships with the media and other related groups including professional, educational and political leadership.

Finance and Administration

- Accountable for the development and management of the annual budget, administration of chapter accounting policies and preparation of reports, chapter records and other needed documentation.
- Approves all contracts and purchases in accordance with APDA's policies and/or practices.
- Performs personnel management functions in accordance with APDA policies and procedures, including performance management, training, supervision and hiring/termination.
- Interprets and administers the personnel policies and procedures of APDA.
- Ensures confidentiality and security of all information under supervision.

Liaison with APDA's Home Office (National Headquarters)

- Represents the best interests, professionalism and integrity of APDA in all activities and relationships through a unified message of APDA's mission and a commitment to organizational standards.
- Provides leadership and ensures a strong working relationship between the chapter and Home Office.
- Ensures that the policies adopted by the APDA Home Office are followed by employees and volunteers.
- Represents APDA at designated functions.

Qualifications

- 7-10 years of progressively responsible related experience with a minimum of four years in a supervisory capacity.
- Bachelor's Degree or equivalent; Master's Degree preferred.
- Knowledge and skill in nonprofit management with emphasis on proven fundraising.
- Proficiency in fiscal management.
