

The American Parkinson Disease Association (APDA) is currently seeking a Development Director at the Missouri Chapter to join their growing organization. This is a full-time, exempt, position based in the Chapter's Chesterfield office. The MO Chapter serves Missouri and Southern IL and is one of APDA's most well-established chapters. The Chapter provides an array of dynamic, community-based programs and services and a revenue budget of $1.0M. The Chapter seeks a Development Director to lead a diverse portfolio of fundraising efforts, achieve sustainable growth, and champion cultivation efforts in the region. The position requires some evenings and weekends and includes travel locally, statewide, and regionally to cultivate relationships, engage constituents and attend local events and meetings.

The ideal candidate has leadership experience in the non-profit sector, is familiar with the Missouri geography, culture, and the philanthropic market; has a proven track record in fundraising and donor cultivation; is knowledge of Parkinson's disease and/or chronic illness, the healthcare and social service systems; possesses strong relationship-building skills and communications strengths, the ability to multi-task, deliver exceptional customer service; and utilize keen problem solving and judgment skills.

AMERICAN PARKINSON DISEASE ASSOCIATION:

Every day, the American Parkinson Disease Association (APDA) provides the support, education, and research that will help everyone impacted by Parkinson's disease live life to the fullest. APDA is the largest grassroots network dedicated to fighting Parkinson's disease, a chronic, neurological disorder, and works tirelessly to help the approximately one million people with Parkinson's disease in the United States live life to the fullest. Founded in 1961, American Parkinson Disease Association has raised and invested more than $282 million to provide outstanding patient services and educational programs, elevate public awareness about the disease, and support research designed to unlock the mysteries of Parkinson's disease and ultimately put an end to this disease.

ABOUT THE ROLE:

The Director of Development (DD) is responsible for leading revenue growth through strategic identification, cultivation, solicitation, and stewardship of corporate and individual prospects. This position will be responsible for cultivating and securing financial contributions from individuals, businesses, and organizations in support of APDA's events, activities, and programs, and by raising public awareness to maximize service delivery and revenue generation potential in the community.

The Director of Development manages event staff, staffs Board committees, and represents APDA to internal and external stakeholders, donors, prospects, and the public.
